HOWDEN JOINERY HOLDINGS LIMITED
DIRECTORS' REPORT

The directors have pleasure in submitting their report and the audited financial statements of the Company for the 52 weeks ended 24 December 2011 (2010 52 weeks ended 25 December 2010)

BUSINESS REVIEW AND PRINCIPAL ACTIVITIES
The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Howden Joinery Group Plc and operates as part of the Howden Joinery Group Plc group (the "Group"). The Company's principal activities are as an intermediate holding company There have not been any significant changes in the Company's principal activities in the period under review The directors are not aware, at the date of this report, of any likely major changes in the Company's activities in the next financial period

As shown in the Company's profit and loss account, the loss for the financial period amounted to £7,000 (2010 loss of £5,000) The directors recommend that no dividend be paid (2010 £nil) The directors are satisfied with the progress of the business

The balance sheet shows the Company's financial position at the end of the period Details of amounts owed to and from the parent company and fellow subsidiaries are shown in notes 5 and 6

The Group manages its operations on a Group basis For this reason, the Company's directors believe that further key performance indicators specific to the Company are not necessary or appropriate for an understanding of the development, performance or position of the business The performance of the Group, which includes this Company, is discussed in the Group's Annual Report which is available at http //www howdenjoinerygroupplc com/ and which does not form part of this report

The Company, as part of the Group, recognises the importance of its environmental responsibilities, monitors its impact on the environment, and designs and implements policies to reduce any damage that might be caused by the Company's activities The Company operates in accordance with Group policies, which are described in the Group's Annual Report, which does not form part of this Report

FINANCE RISKS AND OTHER PRINCIPAL RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES
The Company is financed by an interest-free loan from its ultimate parent and has no third party debt It therefore has no interest rate exposure The Company does not have a bank account, all its cash management, payments and receipts are carried out by fellow Howden Joinery Group Plc companies As such, the Company's financial risk management objectives and policies are those of Howden Joinery Group Plc, which are contained in the Group's Annual Report, which does not form part of this Report

The Company has no other significant risks and uncertainties as an intermediate holding entity other than those risks that it shares with the Howden Joinery Group Plc The Group's risks are discussed in the Group's Annual Report, which does not form part of this Report

GOING CONCERN
After making enquiries and taking into consideration the profitability and financial position of the Company, the directors have formed a judgement, at the time of approving the financial statements, that there is a reasonable expectation that the Company has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future based on a written commitment of financial support from its ultimate parent company, Howden Joinery Group Plc, which is legally binding For this reason the directors continue to adopt the going concern basis in preparing the financial statements

EMPLOYEES
The Company had no employees (2010 nil) during the period and staff costs amounted to nil (2010 £nil)

DIRECTORS
The directors of the Company who served throughout the period, except as noted, were

STATEMENT OF DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES

The directors are responsible for preparing the Annual Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year Under that law the directors have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law) Under company law, the directors must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company and of the profit or loss of the Company for that period In preparing these financial statements, the directors are required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- state whether applicable UK accounting standards have been followed, and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Company will continue in business

The directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records which are sufficient to show and explain the Company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006 They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF HOWDEN JOINERY HOLDINGS LIMITED

We have audited the financial statements of Howden Joinery Holdings Limited for the 52 weeks ended 24 December 2011 which comprise the Profit and Loss Account, the Balance Sheet and the related notes 1 to 9 The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice)

This report is made solely to the Company's members, as a body, in accordance with Chapter 3 of Part 16 of the Companies Act 2006 Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the Company's members those matters we are required to state to them in an auditor's report and for no other purpose To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the Company and the Company's members as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed

Respective responsibilities of directors and auditors

As explained more fully in the Directors' Responsibilities Statement, the directors are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view Our responsibility is to audit and express an opinion on the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland) Those standards require us to comply with the Auditing Practices Board's Ethical Standards for Auditors

Scope of the audit of the financial statements

An audit involves obtaining evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements sufficient to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or error This includes an assessment of whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the Company's circumstances and have been consistently applied and adequately disclosed, the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by the directors, and the overall presentation of the financial statements

In addition, we read all the financial and non-financial information in the annual report to identify material inconsistencies with the audited financial statements If we became aware of any apparent material misstatement or inconsistencies we consider the implications for our report

Opinion on financial statements

In our opinion the financial statements

- give a true and fair view of the state of the Company's affairs as at 24 December 2011 and of its loss for the 52 weeks then ended,
- have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice, and
- have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006

Opinion on other matters prescribed by the Companies Act 2006

In our opinion the information given in the Directors' Report for the financial year for which the financial statements are prepared is consistent with the financial statements

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters where the Companies Act 2006 requires us to report to you if, in our opinion

- adequate accounting records have not been kept, or returns adequate for our audit have not been received from branches not visited by us, or
- the financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns, or
- certain disclosures of directors' remuneration specified by law are not made, or
- we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit
